BACK TO THE ISLAND 3

A ferry goes through the sea and approaches the island of Carloforte. Elena, Caterina and little Giacomo, 6 months old, return from America, where Caterina underwent an experimental intervention that could let her see again.

When they arrive at the port Nabil, Tobia and Diego are there to welcome them while Pietro is in the hospital. He is looking after a girl of a few days old who has saved that morning from a boat on fire. Helping him is Margherita, a neonatal nurse, who will soon discover that she is involved in the crime story. In fact her sister Chiara is missing and could be the mother of the abandoned child.

And so Elena, while investigating in this new case, finds herself working side by side with Valerio Ruggeri, the new Deputy Quaestor of Carloforte, who took over from Alessandro dead one year before: but his arrival in Carloforte could hide a secret. Caterina, on the other hand, will meet a new windsurfing teacher, former champion Leonardo Manca, just when Diego seems more distant than ever...

The investigations into what happened to Chiara and how the child ended up on that boat are once again destined to upset the balance of life of our characters and Carloforte.
