

Back to the Island 3

EPISODE 1

For Dr. Pietro Sereni, it's a day to celebrate. His daughter Elena and his niece Caterina have returned from America, where Caterina had an operation to help her eyesight return. Meanwhile, a new assistant chief of police has arrived in Carloforte- Valerio Ruggeri, a charismatic man that seems to be keeping a secret.

Pietro saves a newborn from a boat engulfed in flames. The investigation focuses on Chiara, a seventeen year old girl that has disappeared from school. Could she be the little girl's mother?

EPISODE 2

While the search for Chiara continues, the police investigate Tommaso, the girl's ex-boyfriend and son of Carlo and Cecilia Manca, the owners of a luxurious resort on the island. Meanwhile, Elena finds out that in the past Valerio had been involved with Monica, the school's assistant principal and the mother of Stella, Chiara's best friend. Just when Caterina is about to find out the results of her operation, her relationship with Diego seems have reached a breaking point.

EPISODE 3

Elena and Valerio's investigation focuses on finding the father of little Anna, the newborn found inside the boat. They find a lead at school. It appears that Chiara had a particular relationship with professor Enzo Careddu, but not everything is what it seems... Meanwhile Caterina, having regained her eyesight, wants to take charge of her life and live out as many experiences as possible, even if Diego seems more distant than ever. The young man, in fact, has a secret he confesses only to Pietro- he might be Anna's father. He and Chiara had a brief affair while Caterina was in America.

EPISODE 4

Elena and Valerio investigate into the New Year's Eve party at the Manca resort. Something terrible happened to Chiara that night and this could be the key to figuring out who her assassin is. This new direction of the investigation unexpectedly brings Elena and Valerio closer... Meanwhile, Diego seems to have arrived at a dead end, both in his job and in his relationship with Caterina, who has begun windsurf lessons with Leonardo, a former windsurf champion who is very handsome, charming and much older than her.

EPISODE 5

Elena and Valerio, now deeply connected, take their investigation to the school to find out who could have hurt Chiara. All Chiara's friends seem to be lying about what happened on New Year's Eve. After Pietro repeatedly insists Diego undergo a DNA test, Diego gives in and discovers he is Anna's father. When Caterina finds out, she breaks up with Diego and is ready to start a new life. In fact, her lessons with Leonardo become more and more frequent...

EPISODE 6

Elena and Valerio are one step away from discovering what happened the night of New Year's Eve, but when Leonardo is suspected of being involved, a heated clash between Elena and Caterina is unavoidable. Elena does not want her daughter to hang out with a man twice her age. Meanwhile, Valerio believes Stella is his daughter and tries to get closer to her. Valerio and Monica dated way back in high school and Monica has always kept the identity of Stella's father a secret.

EPISODE 7

Excluding friends and classmates, the investigation on Chiara's death turns towards a few employees at the Manca resort, who had hid her during her pregnancy and are now the prime suspects.

While Elena and Valerio become closer than ever, Leonardo presents Caterina with a choice that could change her life. He asks her to leave school and follow him abroad. Meanwhile, after Margherita's insistence in convincing Diego to take care of little Anna, Diego tries to get closer to the little girl.

EPISODE 8

A new discovery about Chiara's past seems to finally lead to the truth. Meanwhile, Valerio wants to tell Elena the truth about his sickness, but keeps procrastinating. Valerio has a heart condition that could take his life from one moment to the next.

EPISODE 9

Elena and Valerio are forced to leave Carloforte in search of Irene, the sister of Carlo Manca, who has kidnapped little Anna from the hospital. The woman can't have any children of her own and had hidden Chiara away during her pregnancy in hopes of taking the child from her. Yet Irene and Anna seem to have disappeared into thin air. Now that Elena and Valerio are forced to be near one another, they have another chance to talk... Meanwhile, Diego continues to carry out the investigations from Carloforte, near Margherita, who is very worried about Anna. Meanwhile, Leonardo buys the tickets so he and Caterina can leave. Caterina seems happy, but is she really ready to leave everything and everyone behind?

EPISODE 10

At the same time Leonardo's past is dredged up, Caterina decides not to go abroad with him and to stay in Carloforte. Leonardo, in fact, stole money from Chiara to cover his gambling debts and for this reason is now being held responsible for her death.

Meanwhile, Diego and Margherita must decide Anna's future now that she is going to get out of the hospital. They decide to go and live together and start a new family.

EPISODE 11

While Diego and Margherita begin to project their life together, Caterina realises that she is still in love with Diego. Elena is not convinced Leonardo is guilty and wants to re-open the case. Valerio, instead, seems to be investigating on his own since different pieces of evidence give reason to believe that Stella is involved in the case in some way and he wants to find out before Elena and the police come to his same conclusion.

EPISODE 12

While Elena and Valerio are still searching for the assassin, Diego goes to live with Margherita. During the move, Diego finds a photograph of Margherita and her sister that finally makes him understand the truth. Margherita is the one who unintentionally killed Chiara during a heated discussion.
